

Abbas Lakha KC

King's Counsel

CALLED 1984
SILK 2003

"A wonderfully composed, methodical and smooth operator."

CHAMBERS AND PARTNERS, 2026

Abbas Lakha KC is one of the UK's leading criminal silks, with a heavyweight practice spanning serious and organised crime, international financial crime, and regulatory and asset recovery work. He is consistently instructed in cases where the stakes are highest—liberty, reputation and substantial financial exposure.

Abbas is regularly instructed in the most challenging and high-profile matters, including murder, terrorism, firearms and major drugs conspiracies; complex financial crime including fraud, money laundering, bribery and corruption; and regulatory and tribunal work before the Tax Tribunals and professional disciplinary bodies. He is frequently engaged at the pre-investigation and pre-charge stages, particularly in matters involving reputational sensitivity and international elements.

- Investigatory Power and EncroChat Litigation

A defining aspect of Abbas's modern practice is his expertise in challenges to covert investigatory techniques and surveillance-derived evidence. He has acted in proceedings before the Investigatory Powers Tribunal, including litigation arising from EncroChat-related interception and warrant issues, addressing questions of lawfulness, statutory interpretation, proportionality and Convention compliance in cases of national significance.

- Financial Fraud, Asset Recovery and Regulatory Work

Abbas has extensive experience across civil and criminal fraud and asset forfeiture, including restraint and confiscation, and appears regularly before the First.tier and Upper Tribunal (Tax) in VAT and tax matters. He is particularly well known for substantial HMRC.related litigation, including complex VAT/MTIC and excise disputes and challenges to regulatory enforcement decisions.

- International and Cross-border Expertise

Abbas is frequently instructed in cross.border investigations and litigation involving overseas authorities, international evidence and extradition.linked issues. His work often involves sensitive reputational considerations for high.profile individuals and corporate clients.

- Approach

Abbas is known for meticulous preparation, strategic judgement and calm authority under pressure, combining technical mastery with clear and pragmatic advice focused on achieving the best possible outcome for the client.

Notable Cases

Bribery and Corruption

R v Baker, 2025-2026

Bribery and corruption prosecution of a senior EON employee concerning energy infrastructure procurement contracts and alleged illicit payments from subcontractors.

R v O and G, 2012-2025

Prosecution and extradition of a former Minister and Head of Kenya Power alleged to have received corrupt payments for the granting of Government contracts for building the Kenyan power grid.

Jubilee Line Fraud, 2004

Bribery and corruption prosecution of a senior employee within London Transport surveyors Department concerning the leaking of price sensitive information to bidding companies to secure contracts.

R v H and H

R v B

Jubilee Line Fraud

Bribery and Corruption

Drugs

R v V

The case involves the largest ever importations of Class A drugs from the Netherlands over a period of two years and the DV is alleged to be the Dutch mastermind behind the importations which flooded the North East of the United Kingdom. This is a VHCC which has been split into 4 trials each lasting over 6 months.

Complexities: Extradition; Mastery of the Vast Scale of the evidence; foreign intercept evidence.

Manchester Crown Court

Drugs

Extradition

Jersey V O and G, 2012-2025

Advised and represented in high-profile extradition proceedings brought by the Attorney General of Jersey seeking the surrender of senior Kenyan public officials to face money laundering and corruption charges arising from the award of energy infrastructure contracts. The request formed part of a long-running international investigation centred on allegations that bribe payments were channelled through offshore corporate vehicles, including a Jersey-registered entity used to conceal proceeds. The matter engaged complex jurisdictional challenges, constitutional litigation and appellate proceedings in Kenya concerning the legality of the extradition process and prosecutorial mandate. The case formed part of wider asset recovery proceedings involving multi-jurisdictional evidence and confiscation orders.

Austria V Pillar, 2018

Advised and represented in extradition proceedings arising from a European Arrest Warrant issued by an EU Member State seeking the surrender of a female respondent in connection with alleged financial crime and associated money laundering offences. The case proceeded under the Part 1 framework of the Extradition Act 2003 and engaged issues of dual criminality, evidential sufficiency and proportionality. The defence advanced forum and human rights challenges, including Article 6 and Article 8 considerations, alongside scrutiny of the requesting state's prosecutorial basis and underlying financial evidence. The matter required detailed analysis of cross-border transactions and corporate structures.

Re H B, 2026

Advised a UK-based national formerly operating within the Indian banking sector in relation to INTERPOL exposure arising from allegations of large-scale financial embezzlement linked to his tenure at a cooperative bank. The individual was under investigation by Indian economic crime authorities concerning the alleged diversion of substantial institutional funds. Strategic advice was provided on pre-emptive engagement with INTERPOL's Commission for the Control of Files (CCF) to resist the issuance of a Red Notice on political motivation and due-process grounds, alongside parallel representations to the UK National Crime Agency addressing extradition risk, abuse of process and Article 6 considerations. The matter involved analysis of cross-border financial evidence and asset tracing exposure. Ongoing advisory instruction.

Financial Crime

HMRC v CEO of MSB, 2025-2026

Represented the CEO of a regulated Money Service Business subject to a large-scale money laundering investigation following an HMRC regulatory visit. Allegations centred on systemic AML failures and handling of suspicious transactions. Advised on compelled disclosure, interview strategy and regulatory engagement.

Successfully negotiated a civil settlement avoiding criminal prosecution while preserving both personal liberty and operational continuity of the licensed entity. Direct Access instruction involving sustained engagement with HMRC Solicitors Office.

R v P, 2025-2026

Defending in Operation Ramsay, a long-running HMRC investigation into alleged large-scale excise duty and VAT evasion within the tobacco trade. The prosecution alleged illicit importation of tobacco originating in Russia and routed through EU jurisdictions via parallel import mechanisms to evade UK duty. Represented one of the alleged architects of the enterprise, addressing issues of supply chain knowledge, beneficial ownership and financial tracing. The case involved extensive customs data, freight records and cross-border financial evidence

R v A R, 2023-2026

High-profile MSB money laundering prosecution following an undercover operation. Evidence includes mobile downloads, EncroChat material, overseas banking inquiries and accounting reconstruction. Attribution of Encro device usage forms a central issue.

Operation Yulan, 2025

VHCC pension liberation fraud following an 8-year investigation involving offshore structures, introducer networks and international evidence. Proceedings involved extensive digital disclosure and expert accountancy analysis.

R v S H, 2025-2026

Defending a Harley Street surgeon charged with multi-count tax evasion and fraudulent evasion of income tax arising from corporate vehicles through which professional earnings were channelled. The case raises complex issues regarding attribution of personal tax liability where no dividends or remuneration were drawn and funds were extracted solely via director's loan accounts. The defence challenges HMRC's characterisation of loan withdrawals as taxable income and addresses corporate structuring, beneficial entitlement and criminal intent. Extensive forensic accounting evidence.

Operation Yulan, R v P, 2024

This operation follows an 8-year investigation into an alleged Pension Liberation Fraud whereby vast sums of Pension Monies were unlawfully extracted from the Pension Funds of 100's of alleged Victims. The case has been categorised a VHCC because of its complexity, the international reach of the alleged fraud and the vast amount of evidence relied upon.

R v G (Operation Inertia)

R v H (Operation District)

Z K v HMRC

Investigatory Powers Tribunal

R v F and Others, 2023-2025

Representing 14 Applicants before the Investigatory Powers Tribunal in a complaint relating to Unlawful interception of Data following a Pan European Operation. The operation led to Worldwide arrests of alleged Master Criminals involved in the most serious criminality. The challenge before the IPT has the potential to lead to the staying of all Criminal Trials relying on evidence obtained from the interception of data and as such is the most high-profile Litigation in the Country.

I am also instructed in the associated Criminal Trials wherein the charges include Conspiracy to Murder, Conspiracy to Possess Automatic and Semi-Automatic Weapons with Intent, and a multitude of Drugs Conspiracies at the very highest end.

Complexities: the interpretation of the Investigatory Powers Act and the concept of 'Bulk interception' wrongly being the subject of Targeted Equipment Interference Warrants; lack of candour and its impact on the validity of the Warranty granted by the Commissioner; breaches of ss. 9 and 10 of the IPA and the consequences and potential breach of Article 8 arising from the unlawful interception of Communications.

Rape and Sexual Offences

R v T, 2024

The Defendant was a Nepalese man who came to this country as a refugee without a bean. He built up a very successful vape business and eventually married a Latvian lady who had 3 children from a previous marriage. He cared for them as his own until the marriage broke down when the family moved out. Allegations were made by the children of sexual abuse over many years from a young age. The Defendant's case was that these allegations were a revenge for not supporting the family in the way he had for many years. He was acquitted of all the charges.

Tax Investigation, Tribunal Work, Prosecutions

COP 9 Settlements, 2026

Advising a senior executive in relation to a Code of Practice 9 investigation initiated by HMRC's Civil Investigation of Fraud (Offshore) Team concerning alleged undeclared offshore income and capital gains. Managing disclosure under the Contractual Disclosure Facility while conducting sensitive negotiations to secure civil resolution. Strategic focus includes limiting penalties to 30% and securing protection from criminal prosecution under the COP 9 framework.

R v H and H, 2024

The defendants were charged with tax evasion of £3.6 million on a substantial property transaction involving the Local Council. The tax evasion involved the use of a complex web of off shore structures in the BVI and Gibraltar. Ultimately negotiated a settlement which allowed the Court to defer sentence for the payment of the evaded Tax in full.
