Chris Errity

1st Junior Clerk

Chris Errity is a 1st Junior Clerk at 9BR Chambers. He joined Chambers in July 2026.

Chris is responsible for the day-to-day management of members ' practices, overseeing diary management, case allocation, listing arrangements, fee negotiations and business development initiatives. His extensive knowledge of court procedures, criminal litigation and practice management enables him to provide practical solutions to complex listing and case management issues.

A key member of Chambers ' leadership team, Chris contributes to strategic planning, marketing and the ongoing development of the business. He works closely with solicitors, courts and professional clients to build strong relationships and ensure the highest standards of service delivery.

Known for his professionalism, reliability and approachable manner, Chris is committed to delivering an outstanding service to clients whilst supporting the continued success and growth of Chambers.

Areas of Responsibility

- Practice management and strategic development
- Diary management and case allocation
- Court listings and case progression
- Fee negotiation and financial management
- Public Access enquiries and client liaison
- Solicitor and professional client relations
- Business development and marketing
- Regulatory compliance and risk management
- Team leadership and operational management

Chris prides himself on building lasting professional relationships and providing a proactive, solutions-focused service that helps clients navigate the legal process efficiently and effectively.