Florence Kelly Goodayle

Third Six Pupil
CALLED 2025

Florence joined Chambers as a third-six pupil, following the successful completion of a 12-month pupillage at the Crown Prosecution Service.

During her pupillage Florence built a busy practice, prosecuting in the Magistrates and Crown Courts across London. She also gained exposure to the Specialist Casework Divisions whilst seconded to the CPS Extradition and London Homicide Units.

Florence completed the Bar Course with a distinction, having been the recipient of a Residential Award. Before coming to the Bar, she worked as a legislative intern on Capitol Hill, assisting a Member of Congress for a congressional district in New York.

Florence has completed the ICCA training to represent children, having previously volunteered with the Youth Justice Service in a London Borough. She also volunteered with the vocalise initiative, teaching a curriculum to prisoners at HMP Belmarsh.
