Ciara Church

Third Six Pupil
CALLED 2022

Ciara joined Chambers as a third-six pupil, following the completion of a 12-month pupillage at the Crown Prosecution Service based in Leeds.

Ciara established a busy practice in Leeds prosecuting in the Magistrates and Crown Courts during her pupillage. As part of her pupillage, she undertook a secondment to gain experience in extradition and youth court work. Further, she completed the ICCA training to represent children in the Youth Court.

Ciara completed the Bar Course in 2022 following the receipt of the Roger Cox Scholarship from Gray's Inn. During the Bar Course, Ciara volunteered as an Advice and Information Officer at Liberty and a caseworker at Care4Calais.

Prior to commencing pupillage, Ciara worked as a family law paralegal and advocate in Non-Molestation Order proceedings. She then completed a Masters in Human Rights and Democratisation and was awarded a five-month internship at Human Rights in Practice in the Netherlands. During this time she assisted on numerous international law matters including the ongoing case of Ziada v Netherlands Application no. 613/24 before the European Court of Human Rights.
