

REGISTER NOW >

WEBINAR SERIES

CHANGE OF FORUM:

how international criminal law is on the move

While The Hague is associated with the seat of international criminal law, domestic jurisdictions are broadening capacity to deal with cases found at home and some from across the globe. Listen to three sessions highlighting where the international has moved domestic in local special accountability mechanisms, case-building for forum-shopping, and defending in domestic prosecutions under universal jurisdiction.

IDA PERSSON

Special Adviser on Transitional Justice
Head of the Post-TRRC Unit,
Ministry of Justice, The Gambia

A dedicated local mechanism to hear a volume of atrocity cases: Special Accountability Mechanism in The Gambia

28

September

16.00 (CEST)

TBC

TBC

Investigators-at-large building
conflict cases and finding fora

October

JENS DIECKMANN

German Attorney-at-Law and International Defence and Victims'
Counsel

The evolution of Universal Jurisdiction in Germany and
Lessons in Practice

30

November

16.00 (CET)

Free for ADC Members | €10 per session for Non-Members